

Mark T Boyer

REEDSPORT - Mark T. Boyer, 67, of Reed-sport, OR, passed away peacefully on August 28, 2023, at his home. Born on April 21, 1956, Mark was a gentle and loving soul. He had a sensitive side that reminded others to be more aware of their emotions. Mark's granddaughters, Payton, Mia, and Addison, were his world.

Mark had a passion for old-school knife making and was an avid seller on eBay. He enjoyed going garage sailing to find treasures to buy and resell. Despite being afflicted with Parkinson's for 14 years, Mark remained resilient. He had recently been gathering items to start crabbing, a new hobby he was excited to pursue.

Mark is survived by his wife Janice Boyer, sister Teresa, brother James, sister Annette, niece Adrienne, and grandnephew Harper. He was preceded in death by his parents, Louise and Thomas Boyer.

In his professional life, Mark had a diverse career, but he spent the last 30 years working in magazine editing and sales. For over 20 years, he was a dedicated employee at Davison - Macri.

Mark worshipped at The House Church in Snohomish, Washington.

Mark was a skilled handyman, often compared to the resourceful character MacGyver. He had a knack for fixing things and enjoyed tinkering in his spare time.

A celebration of Mark's life will be announced to friends and family at a later time.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to a charitable cause of your choice.

Mark T. Boyer will be deeply missed but forever cherished in the memories of those who loved him. 143 Mark!
